Believable Alternatives

PRAY...

The actions of others trigger emotions that drive us insane
When we focus on not processing our pain

We do not control the world we now experience today
Expected to obey, for we now are programmed to have no say

The year has shown us the truth of our fears.
Illness, death, and tests can bring us close to tears.

A cure, we are told on top of all the other lies of yesterday
For our rights as human beings are swept away today

How was this fearful program birthed as a loss of our freedom?
Can there be a reason clear enough to explain this need for wisdom?

This attack on our freedom comes with a loss of our rights
Many agree to obey, adhere, and experience life without a fight

Praying for the insane that has created this unacceptable existence of propaganda directly
Is what we together can cling to so that we experience a life filled with stability
